

COST ENGINEER/ESTIMATOR

United Alloy, a premier Rock County metal fabrication and powder painting company in Janesville Wisconsin, has an opening for a Cost Engineer/Estimator. This position will serve as a liaison between Sales, Engineering, and Contract Review and will prepare cost estimates and price quoting for product applications requested by customers.

Some of the qualifications for this position include a technical or business related Associate's degree; technical knowledge of fabrication/manufacturing practices to include sheet metal processes, welding processes, and powder coat application; two years of cost estimating experience to include creating cost models; ability to read blueprints, weld symbols, and bill of materials; experience with an ERP system beneficial; and strong Microsoft Excel proficiency.

In order to be considered for this position, interested candidates must submit a cover letter indicating salary requirements along with a resume to: humanresources@unitedalloy.com.

Equal Opportunity Employer